B1

--1. (amended) A method of playing a card game for a dealer and one imaginary or real player receiving cards from the dealer on a playing surface, the playing surface having at least two sides, one or more designated player betting zones along one side of the surface, where participants can bet on the player winning, one or more designated dealer betting zones along an opposite side of the surface where the participants can bet on the dealer winning, and one or more further betting zones associated with respective player and dealer betting zones, the or each said further betting zones being designated for a prenominated or paramount winning hand for participants to
